

LLELA

Night Hike

6:30 p.m. Friday, March 9, 2012
at the Lewisville Lake
Environmental Learning Area

We may hear some bumps in the night, but have no fear...it's probably just an armadillo. Follow our trail guides on a moonlit stroll down the Redbud Trail. Coyotes howling, owls hooting, and other nocturnal sounds will provide an out-of-the-ordinary hiking experience.

No flashlights are necessary. Ages 5 years and up. The hike will be rescheduled in the event of rain. Registration required at 972-219-3930 or lisacole@unt.edu.

The hike is $7 per person, or $2/person for LLELA season pass holders.

LLELA is located at 201 E. Jones St., Lewisville, TX.
