

map of the public areas at the Lewisville Lake Environmental Learning Area

The Cottonwood Trail winds through forest and prairie areas. It is a loop trail, 1.3 miles in total length. The Beaver Pond is almost at the halfway point, between 0.25 and 0.5 miles from the pavilion.

The Cicada Trail goes through the woods along the old channel of the Elm Fork. It is 0.3 mile one-way.

The Redbud Trail goes through scattered forest and prairie and along the Elm Fork. It is a 1.4 mile loop.